POLLED SHORTHORN SALE

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1971

NOBLESVILLE, INDIANA

ELLIS L. SHAFER

Each year the Indiana Polled Shorthorn Association honors one of its members for their outstanding contribution to the breed. This year the honoree is Ellis L. Shafer. He has been a leader in his state association, sponsored activities, and although busy in his professional career, has always found time to promote Polled Shorthorns.

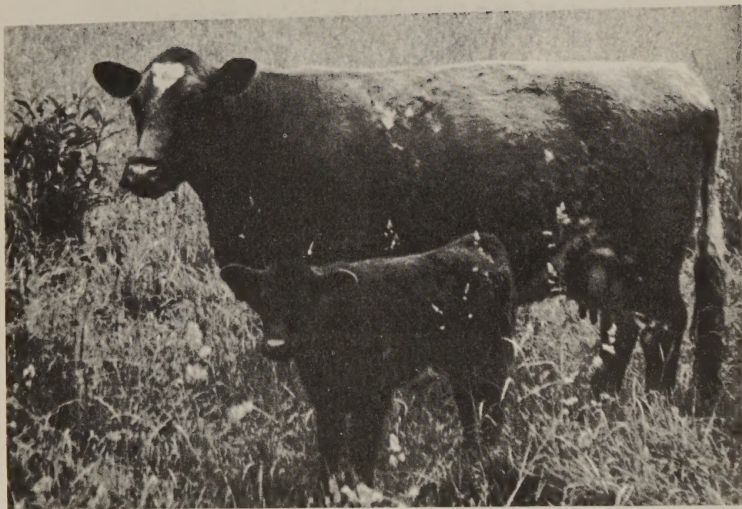

Since 1941 Ellis Shafer has bred, promoted, and sold Polled Shorthorns on a local, state, and national basis.

He bred the 1954 International Grand Champion bull — L F Fascination x — and has used Corona Fascination x, Corona Coronation x, and Acadia Napoleon 75th x, all International Reserve Grand Champions.

Ellis has shown at most of the midwest state fairs and has shown, sold, and purchased breeding stock at many Polled Congresses.

Lanedale bulls made up a part of the famous Lynnwood bull sales and can be found in numerous states and in Argentina.

In addition to Polled Shorthorns, Ellis and Elaine enjoy motorcycle riding and bowling.

Arrowhead Caroline 18th x, typical of the many outstanding Polled Shorthorn females throughout the state of Indiana. She is the dam of Arrowhead Silver Nugget x, senior stock bull at Arrowhead Farms, Batesville, Ind., consignors to this sale.

What an array of breeding power. The females selling are sired by and bred to bulls that are writing breed history. Study the pedigrees and read the footnotes, note the strength of this consignment of Polled Shorthorn females. They are not only the kind that will lay a solid foundation for the new breeder . . . but also the kind that will strengthen any herd, be it large or small . . . new or old . . . famous or just getting that way. 19 of them are 1971 heifer calves and will be eligible for the junior shows next year.
